

Icenian News Network 6

Well. It has been a long few months, but I am back! And back with a change! We have now begun the process of rebranding from Local Icenian News to Icenian News Network. What changes will this bring though?

- Global News
- High quality news, written by YOU!
- More great merchandise, competitions and more!

We are not just covering Icenia any more – we're opening our doors to the entire server. Expect stories from far and wide, with trusted reporting and a fresh new look. We're inviting all citizens, from new to old, to share their voice as a part of the exciting new chapter.

In the coming weeks, you'll see:

- Special interviews with major players and leaders
- Featured articles from community reporters
- Fun contests where you can win Exclusive INN merch
- Community spotlights to showcase your achievements

And that's just the beginning.

Thank you to everyone who has supported me, and my team, through the ups and downs. The future of news is here, and, it's better than ever. Let's build it together.

Stay tuned – and stay informed!
